

Coffee

Served freshly ground in individual cafetieres per person, with either milk or cream

Squires’ Own Blend - We are proud to offer our own uniquely blended, Squires blend. A great medium, all day drinking coffee £3.70

All of the specialist coffees below £3.80
(except where marked)

Mild Roasted Coffee

- 1. Mysore – The most celebrated of Indian coffees. A velvety richness, low in acidity and mild in flavour.
- 2. Costa Rican - A mild coffee with an increasing popularity. Excellent as a gentle all day coffee.
- 3. Breakfast Blend – is traditionally a light and mild coffee.

Medium Roasted Coffee

- 4. Kenya Peaberry – A ‘peaberry’ is produced when only one half of the coffee cherry develops. Good aroma with an excellent balance of flavours.
- 5. San Agustin Colombian – This has good sweetness and a well rounded taste, a coffee for the true connoisseur. Perfect without milk.
- 7. Blue Mountain Blend - An excellent all day drinking coffee which imitates the original Jamaican Blue Mountain.
- 8. Colombian – A Medellin Excebo Colombian coffee. Medium roasted to produce a full nutty flavour.
- 9. Brazilian Santos – The best of the Brazilian coffees, medium roasted to produce a good all day drinking coffee.

Stronger Medium Roasted Coffee

- 10. Monsoon Malabar – Produced in Southern India this is aged in the Monsoon winds for a few days which gives it a distinctive flavour, free from acidity.
- 11. Old Brown Java – Is aged for a minimum of three years to produce a sweet flavour with a good body and strength. Excellent as an after dinner coffee.

Dark Roasted Coffee

- 12. Italian Blend – A full flavoured pure Arabica blend, high roasted to give a strong and Continental flavour.
- 13. Full Mountain Roast – High roasted as the Italian Blend but with a smooth and rich flavour.

Other Coffees

- 14. Swiss Water Decaffeinated – A fine Central American coffee which is decaffeinated with the Swiss Water process that uses no chemicals.

15. Jamaican Blue Mountain – The champagne of the coffee world. One of the rarest and most expensive coffees. A smooth and yet mellow flavour, with a pleasant aroma. Second to none. £4.50

Cappuccino	Small £3.60	Large £3.70
Latté	£3.70
Espresso	£2.85
Mochaccino (Hot chocolate & coffee)	£4.35
Flavoured Latté	£4.35
Hot Chocolate (made with milk)	£3.85
Whipped cream or marshmallows per portion	£0.45

We also offer Soya & Oat milk for cappuccino, hot chocolate & latte, extra 30p

Tea

Loose leaf tea served in individual teapots per person, with either milk or lemon

English Breakfast Tea – A blend of high grown Ceylon, Kenyan and Assam teas, resulting in the traditional British Cuppa! £3.60

All of the specialist teas below £3.70
(except where marked)

Ceylon Tea

- 16. Ceylon Water Decaffeinated Tea - One of the best as it retains most of its flavour after processing.
- 17. Ceylon Orange Pekoe - A light tea, most refreshing with little tannin, good black or with just a dash of milk.

Indian Tea

- 18. Assam Tippy Orthodox – Malty and full bodied. Very popular in Britain as a good strong tea.
- 19. Darjeeling TGFOP Best – From the foothills of the Himalayas where the climate is cool and wet which results in a light and delicate flavour.

Other Teas

- 21. Kenya B.O.P - The best of the African teas. An excellent clean tasting tea with good colour, a more gentle alternative to breakfast tea.

Chinese and Formosan Teas

- 22. Keemun Yi Hong – Malty and full flavoured. Keemun became known as the English Breakfast Tea in the 18th century.
- 23. Black Dragon Oolong – Oolong is to China what Darjeeling is to India. Semi-fermented with all the flavour of a green tea. Never use milk !
- 24. Jasmine Monkey King – One of China’s most famous teas. It is believed to aid digestion and is scented with Jasmine Blossom.
- 25. Imperial Earl Grey – A blend of Black China Tea and natural oil of Bergamot resulting in a very popular and refreshing brew.
- 26. Lapsang Souchong – An unusual tea with a strong and smoky flavour, created by the drying process.
- 27. Advent Of Winter Tea – This warming winter tea is a blend of China teas, orange peels, rose petals, cinnamon and cloves.
- 28. Tropical Green Tea – A blend of passion fruits, guava and mango resulting in a pleasant tasting tea which is low in caffeine.
- 29. Gunpowder Tea – A subtle and refreshing green tea. Historically, the leaves were rolled into small balls, which resembled lead shot.

Japanese Tea

- 30. Sencha – A quality green tea, light and refreshing. The majority is grown for the Japanese market and little is exported.

31. Tea of Life (Pai Mu Tan) - A Fujian Province white tea said to promote good health. Light and delicate, very low in caffeine. £4.25

32. Black Dragon Oolong SILVER TIP - Known as “Liquid Sunshine”. Selected from the new, unopened shoots. Pure heaven! £4.25

Caffeine Free Infusions, pure fruit & flowers

- 33. Camomile Herbal – One of the most popular herbal drinks. Traditionally taken in the evening to aid relaxation.
- 34. Apple and Lemon Tisane – A fresh tasting combination which results in a light and pleasant flavour.
- 35. Strawberry and Kiwi Tisane – A good summer drink made from pieces of dried fruits. Produces a delightful flavour.
- 36. Peppermint Tea - Excellent to aid digestion, with a natural, caffeine-free taste.
